YOU ARE INVITED to join the members of Ockley's only locally-based exponents of the performing arts, for a social evening of wine, nibbles and entertainment. You will be our guests. There will be no charge for admission or for the alcohol, etc. Although we obviously hope to end the evening with new members, there is no obligation to join the Society and no need to stay away simply because you do not wish to go on stage or become an active supporter behind the scenes.

Incidentally, becoming members does not just mean acting (although this talent is much in demand at present). With our regular pantomime presentations and more recent musical revue, we are always on the look-out for singers, dancers, choreographers and musicians. But additionally we need back-stagers (set designers, painters and builders; scene shifters, stage and props managers; lighting and sound technicians; prompts and wardrobe assistants) and people willing to help in the front of house (dealing with tickets, programmes, raffle, catering and running the bar) and with advance publicity and running the box office. Also we would welcome a camera expert to take still photographs.

If you cannot make 13th September but would be interested in joining us, please contact Martin Pratt, our Secretary, on 01306 – 628155, or myself. Alternatively, you may care to visit our web site on www.ockdramsoc.fsnet.co.uk.
