

WANTED

Youngsters!

The Ockley Dramatic Society will be putting on their next Pantomime, Sinbad the Sailor, early in the New Year. Preparation starts soon with castings, read throughs and rehearsals, full details will appear in next month's magazine.

Meanwhile, this is early notice that we will again be looking for youngsters to fill the roles of: Extras, Chorus and Dancers, ideally in these three age groups: 5-8, 9-12 and teenagers. Please look out for details.

Meanwhile, early expressions of interest can be sent to the director, Martin Pratt, by emailing martin@loveyourlogo.com.

Interested in Sound, Lighting and electrical work?

Ockley Dramatic Society are looking for someone to work along side our technical team to learn these skills. Previous assistants have gone on to run their own electrician's company and become a Technician at the Dorking Halls.

This would ideally suit someone who is probably at least 16 years of age and is considering a career in these fields.

If interested, please call Steve Martin, Ockley Dramatic Society, on 07958 050534
