

Ockley Dramatic Society

proudly presents

A Barbeque!

Fresh from our successful 'Midsummer Murder in Ockley' and 'Sinbad the sailor' Pantomime earlier in the year, our next 'production' is a social affair.

The proper reason is our "Annual General Meeting" but it is really a chance for members and interested parties to have a drink, some nibbles and a barbeque amongst the splendour of the Green at the Cricket Pavilion on Tuesday 21st July at 8.00 p.m.

There will be some formal bits, a review of the last year and plans for the winter (there's another Pantomime: Oh yes there is!) but mainly it's a chance to relax and (for potential newcomers) to get to know us.

If you are interested in knowing more about the Society then do come along and join us for a bite.

Obviously actors are a necessary requirement but a full scale production actually uses more people 'behind the scenes' than on stage. So, if you can offer: carpentry, painting, set building, front of house, technical support (sound effect, lighting) wardrobe, musicians, dancers and a myriad of other skills - we would love to meet you.

If you cannot make it but are still interested in the society, do call Steve Martin (Chairman) 07958 050534 or Martin Pratt (Director) on 628155.
